Declaration of Faith.

WE believe in the existence of One only living and personal God,—the Creator, Preserver, and Supreme Ruler of the universe,—who worketh all things according to the counsel of His own will, and whose government is holy, just, and good.[1]

We believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments were given by inspiration of God: and that they are the only authoritative record of the Divine will.[2]

We believe that God is revealed in the Scriptures as the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost; these three being in all Divine attributes equal.[3]

We believe that man has fallen from the state of innocence in which he was created; and that consequently all mankind are destitute of holiness, until renewed by the Holy Spirit.(4)

We believe that God so loved the world that He gave His only Begotten Son to die for its redemption; that our Lord Jesus Christ took upon Himself our nature, and by His obedience, sufferings and death made an atonement sufficient for the salvation of all men; and that forgiveness of sin and eternal life are therefore freely offered to all who repent of sin, with faith in Christ.(5)

We believe that in the same love in which God gave His Son to die, He has also sent the Holy Spirit to make His truth effectual; that through His gracious influences alone men are convinced of sin, renewed, and sanctified; and that those who are thus led to repentance, having been chosen in Christ before the foundation of the world, will be kept by the power of God, through faith, unto salvation.(6)

We believe that for the comfort and strengthening of His followers, and for testimony to His truth, our Lord has established in the world a visible church; that it is the duty of all Christians to enter into covenant with it, professing thus their faith in Christ, and observing the Ordinances of Baptism and the Lord's Supper; that it is the privilege of believing parents to consecrate their children also, to God in Baptism; and that all believers, visibly united, though called by different names, are the one body of Christ, sacredly bound to keep the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace.(7)

We believe that there will be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and of the unjust; that all must give account to Christ of the deeds done in the body; and that the wicked will go away into everlasting punishment, and the righteous into life eternal.(8)

Covenant.

IN the presence of God and this assembly, you do now solemnly recognize the Lord Jehovah, Father, Son and Holy Ghost, to be your God, the supreme object of your affection, and your portion forever. You cordially acknowledge the Lord Jesus Christ, as your only Redeemer and Saviour; and the Holy Spirit as your Sanctifier, Comforter and Guide. You gratefully devote yourselves to God, in the everlasting covenant of His grace, consecrating all your powers and faculties to His service and glory; and you promise that, through the assistance of His Spirit, you will cleave to Him as your chief good; that you will give diligent attendance to His word and ordinances; that you will seek the honor and interest of His kingdom; and that, henceforth, denying all ungodliness and every worldly lust, you will live soberly, righteously and godly in the world.

You do now cordially join yourselves to this Church, engaging to submit to the discipline of Christ in His house, and the regular administration of it in this Church; to strive earnestly for its peace, its edification and its purity; to aid in maintaining the worship of God, and diffusing the blessings of the gospel; and to walk with its members in charity, faithfulness, circumspection, meekness and sobriety.

Form for the Admission of Persons

UPON PROFESSION OF FAITH.

[The candidates for church membership will present themselves in the aisle before the pulpit, without notice given, while the minister is reading the following invitation.]

JESUS saith Come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest; take my yoke upon you and learn of me, for I am meek and lowly in heart, and ye shall find rest unto your souls, for my yoke is easy and my burden is light. And the Spirit and the Bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst, come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

[Then the minister addresses the candidates as follows :]

You are here before God and many witnesses to confess the Lord Jesus Christ. We trust that you appreciate the solemnity and the blessedness of this confession and that He who hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ.

[Here the Declaration of Faith is read.]

Do you accept this as the declaration of your faith?

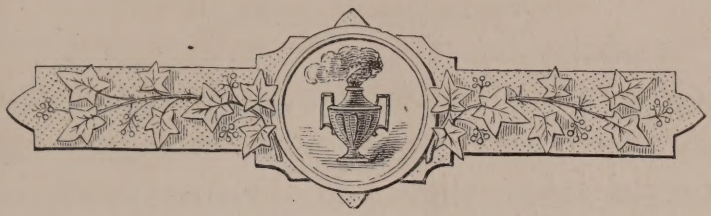
[The sacrament of Baptism will here be admistered to those who have not received it.]

[Here read the Covenant.]

Do you thus covenant with God and with His people?

Most affectionately do we, therefore, the members of this church, [the church rising] receive you to our fellowship and communion, bidding you a cordial welcome as fellow citizens with the saints, and of the household of God. And solemnly renewing this day our covenant with God and with each other, we promise, by the grace of God assisting us, to conduct towards you in all respects according to the rules of Christ in His Gospel, so long as you continue among us. From you, in turn, we look for counsel and co-operation; with us you are to labor in turning to the Master the souls of men.

And now, beloved in the Lord, let it be impressed upon your minds that you have entered into obligations the most sacred of your life. You are compassed with a great cloud of witnesses. These vows will follow you to the bar of God. You will give account of them to Christ at His coming. May the God of all grace strengthen and keep you! The very God of peace sanctify you wholly! Faithful is He that calleth you. He speaks to you to-day, saying, "Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid. Not as the world giveth, give I unto you. As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you. The Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me. These things have I spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. Be of good cheer: I have overcome the world." Amen.



Form for the Admission of Members

FROM OTHER CHURCHES.

[Those whose names have been read are requested to rise in their several places without further notice.]

PRESENTING yourselves for union with this church, upon this day of the Lord, amid the scenes of this communion, you in effect renew your vows as the disciples of the Saviour. You acknowledge union with Him to be your joy and hope, and to His service you freely devote yourselves with all that has been given you?

[Here read the latter part of the Covenant. Also, the reception by the church, as in previous form.]

And now "unto Him that is able to keep you from falling and to present you faultless before the presence of His glory, with exceeding joy, to the only wise God, our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and forever." Amen.

Form for the Baptism of Children.

YOU, who now present your children to receive upon them the seal of God's covenant, confess yourselves believers in that covenant which God hath established with His people, promising to be a Father to them and to their seed after them. You covenant, on your part, in the presence of God and of these witnesses, to train these children whom He hath given you in the nurture and admonition of the Lord: to instruct them in the knowledge of all divine truth, as you may have opportunity, but especially in the way of salvation through Jesus Christ: to walk before them daily in the excellence of the Christian life. You do now solemnly dedicate them to God, the Father, Son and Holy Ghost, to be His forever; promising by all means in your power, in reliance upon His grace, to seek their renewal and sanctification, that they may be prepared to take their places as members in full in Christ's visible church on earth, and at last in His glorified church in Heaven. Do you thus promise?

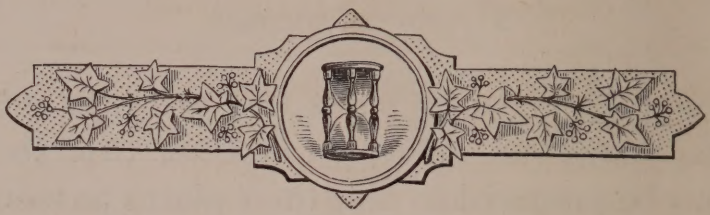
As the minister of Christ, then, I baptize them unto the Creator, the Redeemer and Sanctifier of men.

[The name of the child must be given to the minister in writing, with the date of its birth and the names of its parents.]



Questions for Self-Examination.

WHAT opinions do I adopt and defend? Do they accord with the Scriptures and my profession of faith?

2. What is the prevailing tenor of my conversation and life? Is it spiritual or worldly; serious, or trifling?

3. With whom do I associate as my chosen and most intimate friends? What are the prospects, for another world, of those in whose company I most delight?

4. What influence has my example upon my friends and acquaintances?

5. How far am I governed by a regard to the opinions, customs and fashions of the world?

6. Do I feel, daily, the sanctity of my holy covenant and solemn vows?

7. Do I daily and seriously read the Word of God?

8. Do I pray daily in secret, and in the family? And how do I pray?

9. Do I faithfully and habitually attend the public worship of God, and the meetings for social prayer?

10. Do I remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy, —in prayer, in public worship, in the study of God's Word, in religious reading and conversation? Or do I employ any of its hours in idle indolence, in needless cares, in vain thoughts, in secular reading, in worldly conversation?

11. Am I sacredly honest in all my dealings and secular concerns?

12. Do I always speak the truth in the fear of God?

13. Do I ever engage in any business, or adopt any views or plans, or mingle in any scenes which I dare not spread before God in my closet?

14. Am I living in any known sin; or in neglect of any known duty?

15. What feelings do I cherish towards the Church, my fellow-members, and the disciples of Christ everywhere?

16. Am I willing, when I pray for others, for myself, for the out-pouring of God's Spirit, and for the coming of Christ's kingdom in every heart and in every place, that my prayers should be answered?

17. When I pray for any blessing upon myself, or others, how do I manifest the sincerity of my prayer?

18. Do I, in dependence upon divine aid, govern my temper and my passions? Am I forbearing and forgiving? Is the law of love in my heart, and the law of kindness on my tongue?

19. Do I love the souls of sinners? And is there one to whom I am faithful, and for whose conversion I feel an intense anxiety?

20. Is my zeal for the cause of Christ and the salvation of men, constant? And am I, on the whole, living so that I may reasonably hope to be a blessing to the world?

21. What proportion of my worldly property do I sanctify to the Lord? Do I deny myself for the purpose of doing good? Is it a pleasure, rather than a grief, to be solicited to contribute to advance the cause of the Master I profess to serve?

22. If a parent, have I consecrated my children to God in the ordinance of His own appointment? Do I pray for them, set a safe example before them, and seek to educate them for eternity?

23. Do I realize that I have but one life to live in this world; that the character I form here, will be mine forever; and that the influence which I am exerting will be felt when I am dead?

24. Do I live as though I was "not my own," but "bought with a price," and had devoted myself to Him who purchased me with His own blood?

25. Is my prayer, in sickness and in health, in joy and in sorrow, in life, or in the near prospect of death: "Thy will, O God, be done"? "Search me, O God, and know my heart; try me, and know my thoughts; and see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting."

Rules of the Church.

THE annual business meeting of the church shall be held the second Wednesday of January in each year. At this meeting a Clerk, Treasurer, and Secretary for benevolent objects, shall be chosen for the year ensuing.

2. At the same meeting the Treasurer and Sabbath school Superintendent will present their reports. A statement shall also be made in writing by the pastor or deacons, of the number of persons received into the church during the year by letter or profession; of the number deceased, dismissed or disciplined; of the number baptized; of the whole number of the church, male and female; of the names of the members who may have removed from the place, and the families who have joined the congregation during the year; of the condition of the Sabbath school; of the state of religion, and other objects of general religious interest, all which statements shall be entered upon the records.

3. At the same meeting the church shall decide upon the benevolent objects for which contributions or subscriptions shall be made during the year.

4. Candidates for admission shall be furnished with a copy of the Confession of Faith and Covenant, and shall appear for examination before the church at its regular monthly meeting, or at some other meeting of the church appointed for the purpose; shall be propounded at least two weeks before the Communion, be admitted by a vote of the church at the close of Preparatory Lecture; and make public declaration of their Faith and Covenant.

5. Those bringing letters from other churches, after appearing before the church, will be received on public assent to the Covenant, as provided.

6. Members of this church, removing to other places, are expected to take certificates of membership; and if they remain more than a year, to take letters of dismission to some other church, unless satisfactory reasons be given for not doing it; and members of other churches, residing among us more than a year, will be expected to remove their church relations to us, unless there be special reasons for delay.

7. While we have set forth, in our creed, the faith which we believe to have been once delivered to the saints, we do not intend to restrict the freedom of our brethren in the interpretation of God's word. We therefore reserve the right to accept from those who may hereafter join us, other evangelical forms of faith, whenever they seem to us necessary to the liberty of the Gospel.

8. Any member of this church having cause of complaint against another, should immediately seek to have it removed in a Christian manner, according to the directions given in Matthew xviii: 15–17.

9. This church considers immoral conduct, breach of express covenant vows, neglect of acknowledged religious and relative duties, and avowed disbelief of its articles of faith to which the members have assented, as offences subject to the censure of the church.

10. The censures inflicted on offenders shall be private reproof, public admonition, the withdrawal of watch and fellowship of the church, excommunication—according to the aggravation of the offence.

Standing Appointments.

PUBLIC worship on the Sabbath commences at $10\frac{1}{2}$ A. M. throughout the year, and at 2 P. M. from October 1 to April 1, and at $2\frac{1}{2}$ the remainder of the year.

2. The Sabbath school is attended every Sabbath directly after the close of the morning service.

3. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper is administered the first Sabbaths in January, March, May, July, September, and November, in place of the regular afternoon service.

4. A lecture preparatory to Communion is given as follows, viz.:—Friday preceding the first Sabbath in January, May and September, at $7\frac{1}{2}$ P. M. Friday preceding the first Sabbath in March, July and November, at 3 P. M.

5. Prayer meetings are held on Sabbath evenings and on Thursday evenings, at the vestry. Also, a young people's prayer meeting on every Tuesday evening, at the same place.

6. A church prayer meeting is held on the second Wednesday of each month at 3 P. M., except for the months of April, June, and October, when it will commence at $7\frac{1}{2}$ P. M.

7. A missionary collection is taken in the church on the second Sabbath afternoon of each month, in place of a collection at the Monthly Concert. A collection is also made at each Communion, the proceeds of which are applied to the incidental expenses of the church and the support of its poor.

BOSTON PUBLIC LIBRARY.

One volume allowed at a time, and obtained only by card; to be kept 14 days (or seven days in the case of fiction and juvenile books published within one year) without fine; not to be renewed; to be reclaimed by messenger after 21 days, who will collect 20 cents besides fine of 2 cents a day, including Sundays and holidays; not to be lent out of the borrower's household, and not to be transferred; to be returned at this Hall.

Borrowers finding this book mutilated or unwarrantably defaced, are expected to report it; and also any undue delay in the delivery of books.

No claim can be established because of the failure of any notice, to or from the Library, through the mail.

The record below must not be made or altered by borrower.
